

RIVERSIDE AVONDALE & MURRAY HILL ITINERARY

MORNING

- Start with breakfast at Fox Restaurant, a longtime neighborhood diner in the Shoppes of Avondale. Another option is Southern Grounds & Co. for coffee and a lighter start.
- Spend a little time walking St. Johns Avenue and browsing the locally owned shops. The district dates to the 1920s and retains a small-town neighborhood feel.
- Head toward Riverside for a stroll through Memorial Park and take in views of the St. Johns River.

AFTERNOON

- Spend late morning or early afternoon at the Cummer Museum of Art & Gardens. The combination of art, historic gardens and river views makes this one of the best attractions in the neighborhood.
- Walk or make the short drive into Five Points for lunch, then browse its independent shops and boutiques. Five Points is one of Riverside's main dining, shopping and entertainment districts.

NIGHT

- Check out Murray Hill for dinner and enjoy one of the neighborhood's locally owned restaurants. Stop by Chanco King for Ecuadorian-inspired dishes and a casual, colorful dining experience.
- Head to King Street for a night out in Riverside. Play retro arcade games at Keg & Coin, grab a drink at Rogue or explore more of the neighborhood's laid-back bars and late-night spots.
