

SOUTHSIDE ITINERARY

MORNING

- Start your morning exploring the Southside's outdoor spaces, like Losco Regional Park, and take in some of the area's riverfront scenery. The neighborhood combines residential areas, historic sites and some of Jacksonville's most scenic river views.
- After your morning adventure, fuel up with breakfast or coffee at one of the Southside's local cafés.

AFTERNOON

- Spend the afternoon exploring St. Johns Town Center, Jacksonville's premier open-air shopping destination, featuring popular retailers, upscale boutiques and plenty of dining options.
- Looking for something different? Browse the shops at The Avenues, catch a movie at Tinseltown or enjoy some friendly competition at Topgolf Jacksonville.

NIGHT

- Discover the Southside's diverse dining scene, with everything from international cuisine and fresh seafood to Southern favorites and upscale dining experiences.
- After dinner, head to The Block Jax, a lively outdoor destination offering food, drinks and a fun atmosphere to wind down your evening.
