

VISIT JACKSONVILLE

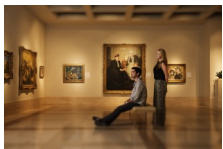

Arts & Culture Group Tour Itinerary

VISUAL ARTS

The day begins with breakfast at the famous Metro Diner located in historic San Marco, known for its appearance on "Diners, Drive-Ins and Dives," to dine on the eatery's signature Breakfast Pie. Plan to spend approximately 90 minutes at this stop. After breakfast, just a ten-minute bus ride away, your tour will take short drive to view renowned selections of art.

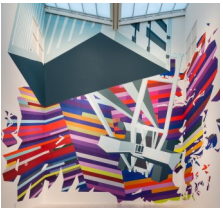

904-398-3701 3302 Hendricks Avenue, Jacksonville, FL 32207

Cummer Museum of Arts

Located in the historic Riverside neighborhood, The Cummer Museum houses over 5,000 works of art spanning 8,000 years including significant European and American paintings and a renowned Meissen porcelain collection. Plan to spend a minimum of two hours to allow your guests to explore the beautiful formal gardens overlooking the St. Johns River.

904-356-6857 829 Riverside Avenue, Jacksonville, FL 32204

Museum of Contemporary Art (MOCA) Jacksonville

With more than 1,000 pieces in its permanent collection, MOCA Jacksonville encompasses one of the largest collections of modern and contemporary art in the Southeast. This museum will take at least two hours for your guest to view paintings, installations, prints, sculpture, and photography by some of the biggest names in the visual arts.

SATISFY YOUR HUNGER, SATIATE YOUR SOUL

One of downtown Jacksonville's most popular destinations, NOLA MOCA serves high-quality, fresh-made dishes inside downtown's landmark museum, MOCA Jacksonville. The menu features seasonal entrées and daily crafted versions of flatbread, pasta, soup, and desserts. Lunch is served 11 a.m. - 2 p.m. weekdays.

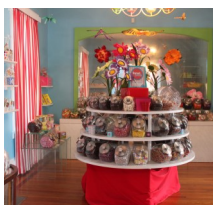

904-366-6911 333 N Laura St, Jacksonville, FL 32202

DECORATIVE ARTS

Stop by the Jacksonville Visitors Center for your complimentary bottled water and walking map of the Public Art Murals Self-Guided Tour including dozens of public murals representing emerging and established local and international artists. The Cultural Council of Greater Jacksonville created an Art in Public Places Program, which oversees the selection, installation, maintenance and conservation of the public art around Jacksonville.

904-798-9111 208 N. Laura St. Jacksonville, FL 32202

End your walking tour with a memorable hand on art experience with a candy making class in Downtown's sweetest spot—Sweet Pete's. This three-story modern-day Willy Wonka Factory offers guided tours of the factory floor and specialized candy classes. Inspired by the art of the day, guest make their own decorative chocolate bar before leaving. Plan for your group to spend an hour at the shop to tour on own or up to a half day enjoying hands on candy making classes!

904-376-7161 400 N Hogan Street, Jacksonville 32202

Option 1

Alhambra Theater & Dining

The Alhambra Theatre and Dining in Jacksonville, Florida, is the oldest continually operating dinner theater in the United States, and the only professional resident theatre in the area south of Atlanta, east of New Orleans and north of Orlando.

904-641-1212 12000 Beach Blvd. Jacksonville, FL 32246

Option 2

Florida Theatre

From ballet and opera to contemporary pop, jazz, rock, country and blues The Florida Theatre offers 200 cultural and entertainment events annually for every taste and age. More than just an entertainment center, The Florida Theatre is also home to graduations, awards ceremonies, lectures, business meetings and charity events that support the community's schools, churches, hospitals and civic groups. The Florida Theatre holds special memories for four generations. From the Vaudeville acts and silent films of its earliest days to today's blend of performances of all kinds,.

904.355.2787128 East Forsyth Street | Jacksonville, FL 32202

Option 2

Times Union Center for the Performing Arts

The Times-Union Center for the Performing Arts is a center for professional and community artistry in downtown Jacksonville. A cornerstone of the downtown area, the Times-Union Center is committed to supporting a wide range of entertainment experiences at the highest level of professionalism. Our three venue facility accommodates events from Broadway touring shows to symphony orchestras, from corporate general sessions to community recitals, from unique receptions to intimate dinners.

904-633-6110 300 Water Street., Jacksonville, FL 32202

Option 4

The Ritz Theatre and Museum

A Blend of History and Culture the Ritz Theater and Museum is constructed on the site of the 1929 Ritz Theater Movie House in Jacksonville's historic African American community of La Villa. During La Villa's time of activity in the 1920s-1960s, it was known as the "Harlem of the South. Located in downtown Jacksonville, the museum is open Tuesday-Saturday, and offers group rates. The Ritz Theatre and Museum is also the perfect place for a group lunch.

904-633-6191 829 North Davis Street, Jacksonville, FL 32202

Option 5

Theatre Jacksonville

Billed as Florida's longest running community theater since it formed as the Little Theatre company 1919, Theatre Jacksonville is still going strong. The productions are staged in a charming 1927 building off San Marco Square. Don't let the size of this "Little Theatre" fool you: The plays and sets are ambitious.

2032 San Marco Boulevard, Jacksonville, FL 32207

Jacksonville offers a large array of activities from Nature & Outdoors, History & Culture to Science & Technology. To receive your complimentary customized group itinerary, e-mail Lorrie Allen at Lallen@visitjacksonville.com or call 904-421-9182